

ONE HELL
OF A READ

14/05/2013

OUT NOW IN HARDBACK, EBOOK AND AUDIO

ONE HELL
OF A READ

14/05/2013

OUT NOW IN HARDBACK, EBOOK AND AUDIO

Tory chairmen urge delay on gay marriage

A GROUP OF Tory chairmen have urged the government to delay any plans to legislate on gay marriage. The 20-year-old group, the Conservative Union, has written to the prime minister, asking for a delay in any plans to legislate on gay marriage. The group, which has 100 members, says it is concerned that any legislation would be rushed through Parliament. It says it wants to see a full consultation on the issue first.

Portrait of a man, likely a Tory chairman.

The group, which has 100 members, says it is concerned that any legislation would be rushed through Parliament. It says it wants to see a full consultation on the issue first. The group, which has 100 members, says it is concerned that any legislation would be rushed through Parliament. It says it wants to see a full consultation on the issue first.

METRO home digest

Cameron will host talks on Taliban risk

DAVID CAMERON will host a series of talks with the Afghan and Pakistani governments in London to discuss the risk of Taliban resurgence. The talks will be held at the 10 Downing Street residence. Cameron will be joined by the British Prime Minister and the Afghan and Pakistani Prime Ministers. The talks will focus on the security situation in Afghanistan and Pakistan, and the risk of Taliban resurgence.

David Cameron and other officials in a meeting.

'Halal pork' pastry supplier is named

A halal pork supplier has been named as the source of a halal pork pie found in a halal restaurant. The supplier is named as 'Halal Pork Pie Co'. The pie was found to contain pork, which is not halal. The supplier has denied any involvement in the matter. The halal restaurant has apologized to its customers and has removed the pie from its menu.

Family mourns 'precious' Sasha

A family has mourned the death of their 'precious' daughter, Sasha. Sasha was a young girl who died of a rare illness. Her family has shared their grief on social media. They describe her as a bright and cheerful child who brought joy to everyone she met. Her death has left the family devastated.

and finally...

A final item in the home digest, likely a small news item or a correction. The text is partially obscured by the fire graphic.

One hell of a read

Introduction text for the book review section, mentioning Dan Brown's 'Inferno'.

Seek and ye shall find

Text block under the 'Seek and ye shall find' header, likely a sub-review or related article.

And so I fight fire with fire

Text block under the 'And so I fight fire with fire' header, likely a sub-review or related article.

Advertisement for a red BMW car, showing the vehicle from a front-three-quarter view. The BMW logo is visible in the top right corner of the ad.